City of Hudson Oaks Community News No. 3

BRANCH OUT TEAM SPOTLIGHT

Meet Hudson Oaks Police Officer Ryan Roden!

Officer Roden started with the Hudson Oaks Police Department in February 2018 and currently serves as the Hudson Oaks Police Officer's Association President.

After graduating from Weatherford College, Officer Roden served in the Army's 101st Airborne Division as an Infantryman where he earned a combat infantrymen badge and an air assault badge.

"I love working in Hudson Oaks because I get to focus on community-oriented policing. We are able to go above and beyond for our citizens, businesses, and visitors."

GRAND OPENING!

HIDDEN OAKS STREET OVERLAY PROJECT

This year, the street overlay project will occur in the Hidden Oaks subdivision. The project is slated for the second week of May, weather permitting, and will include an asphalt overlay along with minor base repairs. The scope of the project is as follows: the entirety of Coates Trail; and Hidden Oaks Drive from Coates Trail to Bankhead Highway.

Closer to the start of the project, staff will push out more information via the newsletter, the Hudson Oaks website, and Facebook as it relates to traffic detours and timelines. The entire project will last two to three days, and residents will maintain access to their homes and driveways throughout the entirety of the project.
